REGIONAL RESTRICTIONS

19 OCTOBER 2020

With guidance on coronavirus restrictions changing all the time, it is important that you understand the basics for where you live.

Local COVID Alert - Tier Levels

Medium - Tier One

- All businesses can continue to operate, so long as the workplace is COVID-secure. The exception to this is any business closed by law, such as nightclubs.
- Businesses selling food or drink must close between 10pm and 5am
- Businesses selling food off the premises can continue to do so after 10pm, through delivery services, click-and-collect, or drive-thru
- Schools, universities and places of worship will remain open
- Weddings and funerals can continue with current restrictions on attendees (15 people for weddings, 30 for funerals)
- Organised indoor sport & exercise can continue, following the rule of six
- You cannot meet in groups larger than six, either indoors or outdoors

High - Tier Two

- All Medium level measures apply, but there are additional measures too...
- You cannot meet with anybody outside your household or support bubble in any indoor setting – public or private
- Rule of six applies for any group meeting outside – public or private
- Using public transport is discouraged except where absolutely necessary

Very High - Tier Three

- All Medium and High level measures apply, but there are additional measures too...
- Pubs and bars must close unless operating as if they were a restaurant. Alcohol can only be served as part of a substantial meal, such as a main lunchtime or evening meal
- Wedding receptions are prohibited
- You cannot meet with anybody outside of your household or support bubble in any indoor or outdoor setting.
- Avoid travelling outside the "Very High" area you are in, or entering another "Very High" area, unless absolutely necessary.
- Avoid staying overnight in another part of the UK if you're a resident in a "Very High" area, or avoid staying overnight in a "Very High" area if you're a resident elsewhere.

Areas under the "Very High" tier will also have additional restrictions determined by their local authority. Check your local authority website for further information on what these restrictions are.
